TOWANNA TINDALL

Director, Human Resources
Boeing South Carolina
Boeing Commercial Airplanes

Towanna Tindall is director of Human Resources for Boeing South Carolina, providing human resources leadership for the BSC site. She joined Boeing in 2012 as director of HR for Boeing Defense, Space and Security, where she provided HR leadership for the BDS Business Development and Strategy function.

Prior to joining Boeing, Towanna worked 14 years in various roles at General Motors in HR, Labor Relations and Communications. She spent three years in Torino, Italy, where she was the regional HR manager for GM Powertrain Europe.

Towanna has a Bachelor of Arts degree in English with a minor in Business from the University of South Carolina. She also has a Master of Human Resources from the University of South Carolina, Moore School of Business. She enjoys coaching leaders and employees to discover their strengths, while leading organizations to maximize their people resources to accomplish business objectives and cultural change.

Towanna is a member of the board of directors of Charleston Promise Neighborhood and the USC Riegel & Emory HR Advisory Board. She has served in various community service capacities and is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. She and her husband, Douglas, are both South Carolina natives. Outside of work she enjoys wine tasting, travelling extensively, reading and practicing yoga.
